UNIVERSITIES ORGANIZE GROUPS -- Wen-hui Pao, 25 Oct 49

Kuang-chou, 24 October -- Many propaganda corps have been organized in Kuang-chou universities since the liberation of the city on 15 October.

On 23 October, the student leaders of the Ling-nam and the People's universities organized about 200 students into several propaganda corps.
Each corps is made up of six cadre units. Three persons compose a cadre unit.

The main function of the propaganda corps is to explain to the masses in rural areas the industrial and trade policy of the new government, elaborate on the "Eight Rules of Conduct," and define the meaning of the New Democracy.

KUANG-CHOU RECRUITS TO SPREAD PROPAGANDA -- Wen-hui Pao, 25 Oct 49

On 23 October, the 81st Kuang-chou Garrison Unit announced a recruiting campaign among workers, peasants, and soldiers for the propaganda corps.

The announcement included the following:

Purpose -- The purpose of the campaign is to recruit 200 young men and women to carry out political propaganda and cultural work for the New Democracy.

Qualifications -- Anyone with the education of junior middle school or higher, or its equivalent, is qualified to join the corps. In addition, anyone applying must have the correct ideological attitude, good health, and no bad habits. Persons possessing specific skills may be accepted without meeting the above qualifications.
